Mission and Vision Statements

Mission Statement:

Chang Jung Christian University (CJCU) was established with the traditions and cultural features of Taiwan's Presbyterian Church throughout history. It has inherited the devoutness of English missionaries, enlightened wisdom, and spirit that brought the missionaries to Taiwan to establish schools and to spread the Gospel, dedicating their lives to preaching the truth, to abide by the teachings of Jesus Christ of in righteousness, universal love, and salvation. CJCU promotes a democratic and liberal academic atmosphere, unrestrained creative thinking, and broad international perspectives. It is dedicated to a holistic, sustainable education, improving the body, heart and soul, and acknowledging the dignity and value of life.

Vision Statement:

To establish a campus with freedom, democracy, diversity, and an open academic atmosphere; to reveal paths for lifelong learning; to cultivate outstanding youth with critical thinking, adaptability to innovation, excellent leadership, forward-looking and broad perspectives, and emphasize management studies, health science, humanities and social studies, information engineering, and religious studies; thus, we hope to mold students to become highly qualified intellectuals and modern citizens who have universal love, righteousness, and to be of service and dedication.
