Mission and Vision Statements

Mission Statement:

Hokusei Gakuen University Mission Statement (Goals of the University)

Hokusei Gakuen University has followed in the footsteps of its founder Sarah C. Smith to provide education based on love, knowledge and expertise up until the present, more than a century after its foundation. To continue the adherence to these principles by everyone involved based on the partnership between faculty and students, the university declares the following as its mission statement

1. We at Hokusei Gakuen University strive to search freely for the truth and gain freedom through the truth, in accordance with justice and good conscience.
2. We remain focused on regional, social and global circumstances amidst the changing times, recognize the significance of the existence of Hokusei Gakuen University, and contemplate and fulfill the roles expected of the university under these circumstances.
3. We contemplate and fulfill the roles expected of Hokusei Gakuen University in bringing peace and dignity to the world despite tragic events due to current social conditions.
4. We strive to increase knowledge and expertise through education, learning and research at Hokusei Gakuen University, and we are committed to using this knowledge and expertise to contribute to society.
5. With this firm resolve, we gather here based on this agreement to strive to make Hokusei Gakuen University a place of free exchange and activities with loving devotion and an inquiring spirit.

“Ask and it will be given to you.” (The Bible, Matthew 7:7)
