Areas of Strength

Tunghai University, founded in 1955, has honored the ideals of holistic education and character development. It has been a pioneer in its encouragement of the simultaneous cultivation, and mutual interplay, of both a well-rounded general education and academic specialization. It views development of character, and scholarly sophistication, as integral parts of the well-rounded university education. It promotes an understanding of individual autonomy and democratic decision-making. The university encourages students to attain an understanding of nature, society and human life. Under the trend of globalization and the challenge of sustainability development, Tunghai University continuously innovates and evolves to be a unique Sustainable Liberal Arts (Green Poya) university.
